

I would like to see the federal government out-trump our state law on the Do Not Call List. I would like to see the FCC have the same standards that Indiana has. I really like our state law and I have not gotten any telemarketing calls since joining the no call list!